THE PROPERTY

This sizeable and well-appointed holiday home should be viewed to fully appreciate the size and standard of accommodation on offer.

There is a superb first floor sitting room with first floor rear balcony that overlooks the rear gardens and surrounding countryside that also balustrades to the ground floor kitchen and sitting room, which has a lovely fire place with multi fuel burner. There are two ground floor bedrooms and family bathroom with a very large first floor master bedroom suite with en suite wc and shower that also has a large front balcony.

The property is warmed by a modern mains gas fired boiler via radiators and there is private parking to the front. From the rear deck off the ground floor are steps down to a sunny, private garden backing onto a small stream and farmland. As a second home or investment purchase we wholeheartedly recommend your earliest viewing.

THE AREA

Little Petherick is a picturesque Cornish village boasting delightful village Church and is situated just three miles from the renowned harbour town of Padstow which has wonderful old stone washed fisherman's cottages and a stone harbour, still used by fisherman today. Padstow has an excellent range of restaurants including Rick Stein's famous bistro and fish and chip shop. The coastline here is regarded as some of the best and most beautiful in the county with many cliff top walks.

Many of North Cornwall's finest surfing sandy beaches including Trevone Bay, Harlyn Bay and Constantine Bay are within a 3 - 5 mile radius as is the magnificent championship golf course of Trevose.

Within five miles is the former market town of Wadebridge with an excellent range of shops, cinema and sports complex which includes an indoor swimming pool and ) and famous Camel Trail for cyclists, walkers and nature lovers alike.
